67 Head of Imported and American-Bred
Shorthorns of Worth

Announcement

To the man who would make wise and timely investment in most choicely Imported and American-bred Shorthorns—of individual excellence and breeding worth—cows with scale and substance and milking qualities to raise lusty calves, we present herein our offering of cattle worthy of his consideration.

Possibly a like opportunity will never again arise for the beginner or younger breeder to acquire real foundation material as this sale affords, at so reasonable outlay.

NOTE—Attend the sale in person, if possible, but remember, the Clearfield Stock Farm guarantees satisfaction to the purchaser on any buying order handled by either Col. N. G. Kraschel, auctioneer, or M. T. White, Homestead representative. Address them by wire or letter at Clearfield, Iowa. Allow plenty of time so your communication will reach them before the sale, or phone either at Clearfield up to 1 P. M., day of sale.

Time and Place of Sale: At 1 P. M., Wednesday, December 10th, 1924, at the farm 6 miles southwest of Diagonal—5 miles south, 1 mile east of Clearfield, Taylor County, Iowa.

How to Get Here: Diagonal is on the main (Chicago, Minneapolis, Des Moines & Kansas City) line of Chicago Great Western R. R., about 80 miles south of Des Moines. Look up the trains. The service is fine. Good hotel at Diagonal. Clearfield and Diagonal are both on the Burlington branch, known as Keokuk & Western (Red Oak, Shenandoah & Keokuk). Several passenger trains both ways daily. In coming from the west, sale day, get off at Clearfield and you will have time to attend sale between trains.

Terms—Cash

HEALTH—This is a healthy lot of strong-constituted Shorthorns, regular breeders, and health certificates accompanying.
